VETERANS' DAY PARADE

Mattapoisett, Marion and Wareham observed Veterans' Day last Thursday with a parade and exercises in the town of Marion. This yearly event is sponsored by the American Legion Posts of Mattapoisett and Wareham, and the V.F.W. of Marion.

Several hundred spectators lined the parade route to see the parade honoring veterans of all wars. Many of the floats entered in the parade urged the support of all Americans to our fighting men in Viet Nam.

Prizes were awarded to the following marchers: the GAMS from New Bedford High School, first in marching; Old Rochester Regional High School band, second; and Wareham High School band, third.

In the color guard category Wareham American Legion took first place. Prizes for floats went to the following: Marion Cub Scouts and Mattapoisett American Legion Post, tied for first place in the patriotic division; Mattapoisett Woman's Club, civic division; and Frank's Market of Mattapoisett, commercial division.

Also receiving prizes were the Wareham Horsemen's Association and the Wareham An-

TOWN HALL NEWS

The Tuesday night blackout which left most of the northeastern part of the United States without power caused a flurry of phone calls to the Town Offices by people who were under the impression that it was a local failure. In spite of the situation the regular Selectmen's meeting was held. Power was supplied from the emergency generator.

Selectmen have requested P & B Co. Inc. to remove boulders from the foot of Ship Street. The stone had been dumped in preparation to building a breakwater at the beach beside the street.

Thomas Livsey of Acushnet Road was appointed to fill Howard Tinkham's place on the Finance Committee. He will serve until the annual Town Meeting. Mr. Tinkham, who is no longer a resident, was appointed to a term Mattapoisett Conservation Commission met with the Selectmen about a pollution and filling of marshland complaint. It was found that the sanitary facilities, in question, were more than adequate. The filling results from the clearing of sand from a private road. It was decided that the Conservation Commission should approach the property owners with the request to cooperate in trucking out the yearly accumulation of sand rather than bulldozing it off the road as in the past. This accumulation pushed off the road onto the marshland causes the filling which the Conservation Commission would like to prevent.

The area involved is on Angelica Point.

Marion Selectmen have sent a letter to the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen to request that a representative be sent to a meeting to form an Action Committee to do something about making known the interest and need for a Community College in Southeastern Massachusetts. The meeting will be held in the Sippican School auditorium, Marion on Friday, November 19th, at 8 P.M. The letter was signed by Mr. Henry D. Backus, chairman of the Marion Board of Selectmen.

WOMAN'S CLUB - MUSICAL MONOLOGUE

On Thursday, November 18th, the Mattapoisett Woman's Club will meet in the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish hall at 2 P.M.

At the meeting Miss Nancy Howard De Bruyn will present a program of Musical Monologues. In this program Miss DeBruyn, a brilliant young singer actress, will perform a costumed rendition of one of the best loved musical comedies of Broadway, "The King and I". A performance that will stir your fondest memories. A versatile performer, Miss DeBruyn is a member of the Boston Opera Group as well as The New England Opera Workshop, and has appeared in summer stock musicals.

Mrs. Leonard A. Burnham, president, will preside at the business meeting. Hos-

SLIDES OF MARINE LIFE SHOWN AT MEETING

Bradford W. Luther, Jr., of Fairhaven, well-known local authority on deep sea diving, entertained members of the Rochester Woman's Club at their November meeting with unusual and beautiful slides of marine and plant life of the sea in color.

Mrs. Grace Greenwood, president of the Plymouth Woman's Club and Massachusetts State Federation chairman of Art Division, was also a guest speaker. She brought with her the winners of the camera contest for 1965 and the travelling art exhibit which will be shown at the Old Rochester Regional High School for a week.

Mrs. Everett L. Hardy presided at the business meeting and reports were received from Mrs. C. Condit Peirce on the Annual Teachers' Reception held at the Rochester Memorial and from Mrs. Ethel Gary on the District 3 meeting in Quincy. Mrs. Irving Ellis gave a report on the scholarship calendars which have been received and will be distributed shortly. Mrs. Robley Buckman of Marion, Veterans Department chairman, was hostess for members at her home on Monday evening,

JUNIOR GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Junior Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Friday night with the worthy master, William Sylvia, Jr., presiding.

Joseph Alves and Mark Breton were reported sick with colds.

The worthy master presented the Junior State Banner to his brother, Wayne, who will be the 1966 master of the Junior Grange. He also presented the other State awards he had received for the Juniors.

New members in the Junior Grange are Janice and Steven Fluegel, Martha, Claudia, Rebecca and Daniel Eilertsen.

Installation of officers will take place Sunday at 2 P.M. in the Grange Hall when Wayne Sylvia and his corps of officers will be installed. It will be an open meeting so parents and friends may be present.

All elected officers are to be at the Hall at 1:30 P.M.

The lecturer's office was presided over by Jane Harris who presented a patriotic program. The lecturer's march was won by Paula Roberts.

An organized group of four girls and four boys playing kazoos entertained with patriotic songs. A semi-circle was formed by the mem-its crew, on their passage from Philadelphia to Boston with coal, in the disastrous storm of July 30.

Oct. 8. Walked to the Neck and gave tracts.

(The amount of walking Dr. Robbins did amazes the modern reader. He could not afford a horse and carriage, nor to rent one; so he used his legs. He walked to the farthest reaches of the town: to Brant Island and the Neck, to Tinkhamtown, to Randalltown and beyond to the Rochester line, to Pine Islands and beyond, and to Aucoot. He visited the sick wherever they might live; he visited almost every house and gave tracts; he held brief informal prayer-meetings at any house where he was invited to do so. Yet all this time he was unwell and frequently exhausted. But whether temperature was 85 under a broiling sun, or 10 in a biting wind, he walked. For out of town trips, of course he had to ride.)

Oct. 12. The opening of the Great Western Railroad last week was a great event. (This was from Worcester to Springfield.)

Oct. 13. Last night we had a hard rain, after two weeks very pleasant.

Oct. 16. Rode to Rochester. They had a good examination and exhibition of their academy yesterday.

(On the 21st Dr. Robbins took a two weeks trip down into Connecticut. His methods of transportation are interesting.)

Oct. 21. Rode to Bedford and Taunton by stage (coach) and to Boston by cars (RR).

Oct. 22. Rode in the cars to Worcester. Then in the same way to Springfield. This second part of the Great Western Railroad just opened, is wonderful. Took the stage (from Springfield) and arrived at Hartford soon after sun down.... Took the stage at ten o'clock and rode to Norfolk....arrived a little after daybreak. A cold chilly night and an uncomfortable stage.

(By the time he was ready to come home, he was in Hartford.)

Nov. 1. Was called at the stage house at three o'clock (A.M.) and took the stage for Providence. Got to Providence in the evening.

(While he was gone, Capt. Snow had noted:

Oct. 21. Sch. E. Adams sld.

Oct. 23. Bark Dryade ar. at N. Bedford. At Mattapoisett 24th.
